DETAILED ACTION

CLAIMS PRESENTED

Claims 1-12, 14, 16-17, 19-24, 28-29 are presented.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argued that the two physical identifiers are unique, separate, and distinct (at page 8 of the Amendment). Yet, this unique, separate, and distinct nature is not claimed. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., unique, separate, and distinct) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

CLAIM REJECTIONS

Regarding claims, as noted by Applicant himself, all features have already been discussed in the previous Office Actions except for two physical identifiers.

Regarding two physical identifiers, Applicant himself noted that this was shown in '548 reference (as noted at the second full paragraph, page 8 of the amendment).

Thus, the claims must remain rejected at this time.

Conclusion

The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The art disclosed general background.
